Thursday Morning, Jan'v. 8, '63, TELEGRAPH

From Richmond. [Telegraphed by the Southern Associated Press Agent.] RICHMOND. Jan. 6. About 11 o'clock last pight a crowd of citizens serenaded President Davis at his

He acknowledged the compliment in graceful speech, in which he alluded to Virginia as the theatre of the greatest battles of the contest, saying the blood of every State had been poured out on her and cries to Heaven for revenge. He paid a glorious tribute to the army

He alluded to our recent victories and expressed his confidence in the triumph of our cause and establishment and peace.

From the United States.

FRED ERICKSBURG, Jan. 6. The N. Y. Herald of the 4th and the Philadelphia Inquirer of the 5th has been received by a flag of truce.

The Chicago Times justifies President Davis' retaliatory Proclamation.

The Inquirers dispatches of the 3d says Telegraph communication with Nashville is destroyed.

Advices from Murfreesboro state that the loss of Federal officers is heart rendseveral of the crew. Banks' forces with Farragut's fleet, were expected but they did not arrive.

Lincoln's Proclamation was honored with salutes and other demonstrations, at Pittsburg, Boston and other places.

Thirty-eight Sioux Indians were hung on the 26th ult. by Lincoln's orders.

Banks has issued a Proclamation advising the slaves to remain on their plantations until their rights are definitely established, and whatever benefit the Government intends shall be secured. In New York, on the 4th inst., Gold advanced to 1341 and closed at 1842; Exchange 1474.

Gov. Seymour's Speech.

RICHMOND, Jan. 6. Gov. Seymour, of New York was inaugurated on the 1st inst.

After taking the usual oath, Gov. Sevmour made a speech in the course of which he said the most strict injunction of the Constitution is that the Government shall take care that the Laws are faithfuly executed, and so help melGod they shall be.

Later Northern News.

RICHMOND, Jan. 7. The loss of the Monitor is confirmed .-A dispatch to the Secretary of the Navy says, the Monitor, in tow of the Rhode Island, passed Hatteras Shoals on Tuesday afternoon. At 1:30, a. m., on Wednesday, the 31st the Monitor having sprung a leak, went down during the blow .-Twenty lives were lost.

The Washington correspondent of the Herald says it is rumored that Lincoln is about to take the field in person in Virgin-

The Herald says Lincoln's Proclamation is the last card of the Jacobine and will determine the success or failure of the Administration, with chances heavily against success. It says the scheme is impracticable, unwise, ill timed and full of mis-

Important from Tennessee. CHATTANGOGA, Jan. 5.

Dispatches from Wartrace state that the enemy had not occupied Murfreesboro this morning. Reports were still coming in that the enemy is returning to Nashville. Parties just from the front report that Morgan had attacked and routed a force of the enemy at Gallatin.

The following dispatch has been received

CARNER'S DEPOT,
East Tennessee, Dec. 18th, 1862. Mr. Richard Yeadon :- Excuse me, my dear sir, for addressing these few lines to you in behalf of my Company. We are here, in this cold, inhospitable country, surrounded by Tories of the blackest die, and guarding one of the bridges on the East Tennessee and Virginia Road. A great part of the men in my Company are destitute of clothing, and are very much exposed; and the Government, not having supplied them with clothing as yet, and a bitter cold winter being upon us, they cannot stand it, unless the charity of those at home should aid them. Now, sir, in behalf of my poor men, destitute, exposed, with barely clothes enough to cover their nakedness-a spectacle to make my heart bleed -may I not, as a native Charleste battling with them for my country, now plead with you for some aid. I can purchase cloth, at Graniteville, if I had the money. money; if so, place it to my credit in the Bank of Charleston, at Columbia, and and a grateful soldiery will ever bless you and yours. You are acquainted well with my family in Charleston; you know my uncle, Dr. A. E. Gadsden, with whom I resided, when living in your city. I went out to Mexico, as Private Secretary to my late unc'e, Gen. James Gadaden, when he was Minister, under Pierce's Administration, and I married out there. The Enemy at Newbern

Many rumors are affoat in regard to probable movements of the enemy in our Eastern counties, (says the Raleigh Standard of the 6th inst.,) but we are not yet in possession of what we consider sufficient authority to state definitely the facts

It appears to be credited, that the beast Butler, of New Orleans notoriety, has been placed in command of the Yankee forces in North Carolida. It is riso stated that the enemy has been reinforced at Newbern from Suffolk and other points, and that an early advance will be made on both sides o Neuse, or by both Neuse and Tar rivers, in order to make a demonstration against Goldsboro' and Rocky Mount at the same time. The impression also prevails that that movement will be preparatory to anadvance upon Wilmington or Raleigh.

From all we can learn, there is great activity among our commanders below. We in the case of Graces, accused of conspira hope the enemy will be met by a sufficient force this time, not only to check but to

If it be true that Butler is in command we hope our brave boys will use every eftort to bag him. Let not his vile foot desecrate the soil of the Old North State. We believe that $25,000 has been offered for

Whether he can remain in that city, with an army routed and demoralized, his communication cut off and with the forlorn promise of a sudden rise in the Cumberland, is a matter which time, or General Braxton Bragg may decide.

Executive Dar'r. N. C., Adjutant General's Office, Raleigh, Dec. 23, 1862. "Colonel: Information has been received by his Excellency, the Governor, that the Factories in Gaston County, known as towe & Co., Linberger & Co., and T R. 1. I should like to know what "information" the Governor had and from whom btained? It certainly should have been from a credible source and delivered under the sanctions of an oath and not derived from mere rumor and hearsay. Yet apon these points, the Governor gives us of light. That his informant was not strictly accurate is manifest, for there is oo such firm known to me as "Stowe & E. B. Stowe, they, and I am sure Messre. that paper came from the better-half the aditor. We concur in the opinion-given all proper and entirely accurate information of their business, and they would thus have had the opportunity and right, dear to every freeman, of being heard be-Vance has certainly erred.

2. There is no "price allowed by law to cotton and woolen factories. The Exmption Law, now before me, declares that "their superintendents and managers may be exempted by the Secretary of War" on certain conditions and not by the G ernor of any State, and Gov. Vance allo certainly have informed himsalf, on co petent evidence, that the Gaston Conactories were net so exempt before he issued his imperial edict against them. This is certainly error No. 2.

3. Again, it is the Secretary of War and not the Governor, who, in express terms, is made the sole judge of any violation the exemption law, for the law reads:

"And it is further provided, That The proprietors of any such manufacturing es ents shall be shown, upon widen to be submitted to and judged of by the Sec retary of War, to have violated or in any manner evaded the true intent and spirit of the foregoing proviso, the exemptions therein granted shall no longer be extended ed to the superintendents and operatives in said establishments," &c.

From this it is clear that Goy. Vance has plainly transcended his authority in the premises and has assumed to himself powers he does not rightfully possess, and has committed an official usurpation againet which I have a right to protest and do protest, as arbitrary, illegal and oppres

These conclusions being undeniable, I beg leave to suggest, in this connection, that Gov. Vance who showed such intense devotion to State Rights and to the rights of the citizens as to place himself in direct conflict with the Confederate Government cy and treason, (the most heinous crimes known to the law) seems to have forgotter what was due to other citizens of the State, above suspicion and reproach, and has ac-tually volunteered to lead on the war against them, to their injury, to the injury of the material interests of the whole State, over which he presides, and to the benefit of no cause or class, beyond the slender addition to the army of a mere handful of men who from their previous habits and training bably make very indifferent sol diers, but who are invaluable to the coun try as experienced manufacturers—and this has been done, too, I will add, in advance of any general enrollment of conscripts in Gaston County -a fact which might tempt |Oil Pa us to indulge the suspicion shat the Gov-ernor was particularly alert and active in regard to the Gasten factories.
